

TIF MAGAZINE

TIF Magazine is the membership magazine of the Thalassaemia International Federation.

TIF Magazine is a valuable source of information on a wide range of subjects, including news about our members' activities in their own countries; information on important policy and regulatory developments; country and association profiles; in-depth patient interviews and life stories; upcoming events; reports of the Federation's activities; and, last but not least, a section on medical, scientific and research advances titled Medical Focus.

TIF Magazine is published 2 times a year in approximately 2,500 copies and is distributed free of charge to a wide network of readers:

- national thalassaemia associations in 60 countries
- medical centres and hospitals
- individual physicians
- Patients and parents
- National health authorities
- International and national haematology and paediatric professional bodies
- Pharmaceutical and other companies
- TIF's international partner organisations, friends and supporters.
