The Thalassaemia International Federation (TIF) participated in the International Haemovigilance Symposium, organised by the International Hemovigilance Network and held on 11 – 12 April 2024 in Athens, Greece.

The Federation was represented by Dr Androulla Eleftheriou (TIF Executive Director) and Mr Loizos Pericleous (expert patient and former TIF Board Member) who delivered presentations regarding TIF's activities to safeguard blood safety and the patient perspective living with thalassaemia respectively. The session dedicated to the future of haemoglobinopathies, chaired by Dr Eleftheriou boasted an esteemed faculty of experts who discussed current and future concerns in the light of new scientific advances for the care and cure of the disease.
