

Attendance Report

European Association of the Study of Liver Conference (2024)

Co-funded by the European Union

WP5 / T5.1 : Participation of TIF
Experts in Scientific Conferences

The Thalassaemia International Federation (TIF) was represented at the annual conference of the European Association of the Study of Liver by Assistant Professor of Internal Medicine-Hepatology, Dr Emmanouil Sinakos (Greece) and Mr George Constantinou, TIF's Vice-President of the Board of Directors and an experienced patient advocate. The Conference took place in Milan, Italy between 5-8 June 2024 with approximately 25,000 – 30,000 delegates from around the world.

Dr Sinakos gave a presentation on the “Compelling need for the strengthening research in liver disease among individuals with haemoglobinopathies” during the Track Hub session on 08 June. Mr Constantinou gave a presentation on the “Essential integration of liver disease in the multidisciplinary care of patients with haemoglobinopathies” during the Patient Advocate Forum held on 05 June. Mr Constantinou's presentation is available on the EASL Campus under the open-access recording of the Conference Patient and Advocate Forum: EASL Campus.

Disclaimer: This publication is funded by the European Union (Grant Agreement No 101176329). Views and opinions expressed are however those of the author(s) only and do not reflect those of the European Union or HaDEA. Neither the European Union nor the granting authority can be held responsible for them.