Experts In Scientific Conferences

The Thalassaemia International Federation (TIF), represented by Dr Maddelena Casale (Italy) and a parent of children living with thalassaemia, Ms Sawsan Ghazal (Sweden), participated in the European Congress of Endocrinology, held in Stockholm, Sweden between 11-14 May 2024.

This conference is the largest endocrine event in Europe that gathered approximately 3,400 delegates. This is the first time that TIF is participating in an endocrinology conference. Dr Casale gave a presentation titled "What is the significance of endocrinology for patients with haemoglobinopathies, particularly for individuals living with thalassaemia" in the Patient Voice Hub session.

Ms Ghazal staffed TIF's stand at the exhibition hall distributing educational material including TIF's guidelines, e-Academy and TIFLIX.
