Call for Case Presentations

Information & Guidelines

Only case presentations referring to thalassaemia syndromes (transfusion-dependent, non-transfusion dependent and α-thalassaemia) will be accepted.

Who is eligible to submit a case presentation for consideration?
Treating physicians and clinicians are eligible to submit case presentations for consideration.

How many case presentations can I submit?
There is no limit to the number of case presentations an individual may submit for consideration, but the same case cannot be submitted twice, even under a different topic/category or with a different title.

Can I submit a case presentation by email?
Yes, case presentations for consideration can be submitted only via email at tif2025@thalassaemia.org.cy.

What should be included in the email submission?
The email should contain the following information:

1. Title
2. Theme (see list below)
3. Name, surname, affiliation, country and e-mail address of presenter to whom the confirmation and further correspondence will be sent

A summary of the case presentation should be attached to the email in word format.

How many words should my summary contain?
A maximum of 150 words, structured with subheadings (background, presentation, management, learning points).

What are the accepted themes?

- Blood transfusion
- Endocrine Complications
- Fertility and Pregnancy

- Heart and Vascular Abnormalities
- Hepatological Complications
- Infections
- Iron overload and management

Who reviews the submissions?
Each valid submission will be reviewed by the Conference Scientific Committee.

What language can I use?
All cases must be submitted and presented in English.

If accepted, where will my case presentation be presented?
During the Scientific Programme of the 1st TIF Pan-American Conference on Haemoglobin Disorders to be held on 11 – 13 July 2025 in Washington DC, USA.

How much time will each presenter been allocated?
Each presenter will have a maximum of 15 minutes. See an example here.

How many case presentations will be accepted?
Due to time constrictions, a limited number of case presentations will be accepted (max. 8).

Can I submit the same case to another conference?
Yes.

When will I receive the acceptance notification?
The results will be sent by email to each submitter in May 2025.

How much does it cost to submit?
Submission is free of charge.

What about the presenter registration?
All presenters must register for the conference and pay full registration fees.

Any case presentation(s) whose presenters have not completed registration by 30 May 2025 will be removed from the programme.

Who is my audience?
There are different audiences:
- The conference delegates
- An international haemoglobinopathy specialist community looking for scientific exchange and networking
- Wider audiences who can't attend the conference but who can access conference presentations online, after conference

What is the deadline for submission?
5 May 2025
